

LOCAL NOTES.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.
St. John failed to hold election for school trustees.

The Wickesburg stage took out five passengers this afternoon.

The domestic county central committee will meet on Saturday.

A very threatening looking cloud yesterday evening required a heavy blow last night.

Dr. Robinson discharged two patients from the county hospital this morning leaving but one there.

The Journal-Miner has a correspondent at the railroad camp who will keep us posted on all important news there.

A telegraph office has been established at Prescott Junction on the Atlantic & Pacific railroad.

The well known brand of named above the "Horn Show" can be had at the Lion store for $2.

A new ambulance has been turned out from the Whipple shop which is a beauty.

The engine for the construction train for the railroad will arrive at Chaco station to-day.

The Indians are said to have returned to Arizona. No depredations further than the killing of some stock are yet reported.

"One who knows" is evidently ashamed of his parentage or himself; he objects to signing his name to what he writes.

Prescott Junction is the name of the new town on the Atlantic and Pacific where the P.A.C.R.R. connects with it.

J. N. Rodenbough received a letter from Rev. W. A. Cuddy late "concerning," in which he gives his experience since his conversion, and urges Mr. Rodenbough to follow his footsteps.

An insane drunk named J. G. B. Powderly has been arrested at Chicago. He claims Arizona as his home, and maybe is "a political power." He probably belongs to Governor Gulick's staff.—Albuquerque Journal.

A report was received here last evening that B. B. Wilkwick, manager of the Arizona Cattle Company at Flagstaff, had been shot and probably fatally wounded. As the telegraph wires are down, we are unable to learn particulars.

A bill of sale from C. W. Best to W. H. Compton has been filed for record. It transfers all right, title, etc., in all lands and stock in Yavapai county, Arizona and in Texas owned by the former to the latter the consideration being $20,000.

The guesses made by the anonymous correspondent, "one who knows," shows that neither "knows nor is he a good guesser in regard to what he writes about. If it will come around and interview the so-called editor, we will give him the true history of what he writes about.

A WONDERFUL BOOK.

We should judge by the wording of the advertisement in another column of this paper, that the new book entitled "The World's Wonders" is indeed a wonderful book. It will pay the curious, as well as those seeking employment, to read the advertisement. The Historical Publishing Co. offers to give standard books free to persons who will stand them in good stead. They also offer to start people without capital in a business that will pay from $15 to $50 a day—a pretty good income for these hard times. Read the advertisement.

General Garrison left last evening to take a vacation at Fort Grant. He will be followed to-morrow by the remainder of the officers and the band.
